11/02/2015	Doyle Training	Development of employees has always been of great importance to KXLF/KBZK. We believe it is an important component in the success of the station and our ability to retain our staff. We have advanced many of our employees into new positions within the company quite frequently throughout the past several years. Management training is another way we work towards strengthening our team. Training, both inside and the station and outside. We have offered training programs to employees at various levels and departments. Along with training sessions throughout the year to teach our management team the importance of diversity in our workplace and methods to ensure equal opportunities and prevent discrimination. Sales Team Anne Fowler of Jim Doyle Consultants led the team in a week-long schedule of presentations to local, well-established companies intended to maximize advertising revenue in Butte and Bozeman.

11/24/2015	Scholarships 2015	KXLF/KBZK is a member of the Montana Broadcasters Association, which currently funds a number of scholarships for students majoring in broadcasting, media, advertising, engineering, journalism or related fields. MBA Scholarships are available to students attending any accredited Montana state college, university, or college of technology in the aforementioned disciplines. Some scholarships are attached to specific disciplines, i.e. broadcast journalism, broadcast engineering, while others are specific to particular schools or geographic regions depending on the desires of the donors: The Joe Durso, Jr. Memorial Scholarship is presented each spring at Dean Stone Night, the University of Montana School of Journalism's awards banquet, and is awarded to an outstanding U-M junior majoring in Broadcast Journalism. The Montana Broadcasters Association Diversity Scholarship is available to students attending any two-year or four-year college or university in the state. The MBA offers a scholarship to any Montana student interested in broadcast engineering. The MBA matches scholarships given by local organizations to students interested in broadcasting. The Great Falls Broadcasters Association awards scholarships to college students from North Central Montana while the Billings Broadcasters Scholarship is awarded to a Montana State University-Billings student. The MBA offers scholarships to current Montana radio or television broadcasters interested to attend management training at the National Association of Broadcasters Executive Development Seminar in Washington, D.C.
